Booth Museum's Doc Stovall Receives Two Awards from the Atlanta Society of Entertainers

Cartersville, Ga. – The Booth Western Art Museum's very own Doc Stovall, Entertainment and Sponsorship Manager, received two awards from the Atlanta Society of Entertainers (ASE) on Sunday, August 20, 2006. Stovall received the Lifetime Achievement Award for his contribution to the local music industry, and Stovall's band, the Tumbleweed Cowboy Band, received Band of the Year.

Over 1,000 people were in attendance at the 32nd Annual ASE Awards Ceremony, held Sunday in Atlanta.

“The Booth Western Art Museum is proud to have Doc Stovall as part of our staff,” said Seth Hopkins, executive director of the Booth Western Art Museum. “Doc is a talented musician and an integral part of the Booth Museum's mission.”

Doc Stovall will be performing with the Booth Buckaroos on Saturday, August 26, 2006, as part of the Booth Museum's Member Appreciation Day.

About the Atlanta Society of Entertainers

The Atlanta Society of Entertainers (ASE) recognizes top musicians in various genres, ranging from pop and blues to cowboy and country music, in the Atlanta area.

About the Booth Western Art Museum

The Booth Western Art Museum is an 80,000 square foot museum located in Cartersville, Georgia, where guests are invited to explore the American West through contemporary Western artwork. The Museum also features a Presidential Gallery; a Civil War art gallery; and Sagebrush Ranch, featuring hands-on art activities and areas for role playing, storytelling and reading, all with a Western flair. Visitors to Booth Museum also enjoy the intimate downtown setting with unique specialty and antique shops, boutiques and nationally featured restaurants all within walking distance of the Museum. Open since August 2003, the Booth Museum is the only museum of its kind in the Southeast and is the second largest art museum in the state of Georgia.
